Royal Cinque Ports Golf Club

Royal Cinque Ports Golf Club has hosted many prestigious championships, including The Open Championships of 1909 and 1920. The club was also the venue for The Amateur Championship in 2013 and remains one of the Final Open Qualifying courses. Widely regarded as one of England's finest links courses, Royal Cinque Ports offers a traditional championship test in a stunning coastal setting. Fourball play is available on Mondays and Thursdays.

Royal St George's Golf Club

Royal St George's Golf Club is one of the most iconic links courses in the world, having hosted The Open Championship on 15 occasions. Consistently ranked among England's very best courses, it delivers a truly memorable golfing experience. As part of the Hagen 54 package, guests will also enjoy the club's renowned lunch, a long-standing tradition for visiting golfers. Fourball play is available on Tuesdays.

Prince's Golf Club

Prince's Golf Club is steeped in golfing history, having hosted The Open Championship in 1932, won by the great Gene Sarazen. Today, the club offers 27 holes across the Shore, Dunes and Himalayas nines, each providing a distinctive links experience and maintained in excellent condition throughout the year.

The club recently announced The Laddie, a new 18-hole championship composite course featuring a carefully selected routing across all three nines. Comprising five holes from the Himalayas, six from the Shore and seven from the Dunes, The Laddie brings together some of the standout holes across Prince's links.
